

Fellow of Canadian Management Consultants

On May 29, 2008 Sherry Knight, president of Dimension 11 Ltd., received the prestigious FCMC distinction.

As a human resource and management consultant, Sherry is a senior member of the consulting profession. She leads the firm in assisting organizations in building their leadership team to ensure a strong bottom line. As the leaders of today are moving on to other stages of their lives the new, young recruits are moving into those leadership positions.

Through audits and needs analysis, Dimension 11 assists clients in succession planning by recruiting the right candidates to fit the organizational culture. Then, we provide coaching and/or training to develop leaders to inspire the team to achieve the desired results.

Throughout Dimension 11's almost 30 years in business, Sherry has played an integral part in guiding business leaders to excel in building successful people who in turn build a successful business.

Sherry presently sits on numerous boards: Conexus Credit Union, The Counselling Foundation of Canada, Canadian Education and Research Institute for Counselling, Business Mentoring Institute of Saskatchewan, Canadian Association of Professional Speakers – Saskatchewan and the Canadian Cancer Society's Relay for Life.

Fellow Certified Management Consultants (FCMC) are those individuals who have been broadly recognized as being outstanding professionals within and beyond the confines of the management consulting profession. They have been singled out by a combination of peers, clients, colleagues and community members for their integrity, pioneering efforts and innovation, as well as their accomplishments and contributions to their profession and community.
